Att: To Whom It May Concern

I have recently dealt with ADCO, who acted as the main contractor on a construction project for an Aerosol Gassing Facility for one of our pharmaceutical clients. The successful completion of this project was largely down to ADCO's proactive and can do approach.

ADCO's professional manner and control of subcontractors ensured that the project finished on schedule, within budget and to a high level of quality. The site was managed to a very high standard, and the works were carried out efficiently and safely.

Our client was highly satisfied with ADCO and their quality of workmanship, and for this reason I would have no hesitation in recommending ADCO to any other client.

Yours Faithfully,

Liza Lynn BE MEng MIEI
Project Engineer
