Reference, Mick Foran

Dear Sirs,

In my previous employment as Head of Harcourt Project Management I employed Mick Foran on a number of projects from 2003 until 2006. Mick headed up the construction teams for these projects which included the prestigious new John Player manufacturing building in Parkwest which was successfully handed over to a high specification and on Programme and two apartment buildings, the Crescent and Opera to the total value of €80 million also on Programme. The Crescent building has won a number of awards and I believe that Mick was also an award winner in the €50m category for Building Manager of the year for that project.

On all accounts his leadership and eye for detail was first class and his attitude to providing client satisfaction was second to none.

I would have no hesitation in recommending Mick to any client.

Yours faithfully,

Dermot Arthur
All Ireland Director of Project Management
